

#DouglassWeek 2023

10 July - 16th July

#DouglassWeek is an annual event series celebrating and advancing the work of Frederick Douglass around the world. The event series includes discussions, performances, exhibitions and events designed to promote collaboration and engagement and to highlight and further the influence of Douglass and other changemakers.

The week is organized by The Globe Lane Initiative, a nonprofit organization inspired by Douglass that uses historical resources, cultural programming and community engagement to highlight Douglass' enduring contributions and continue his intertwined struggle for freedom, equality, liberation and justice. Each year, we work in partnership with a wide network of Douglass scholars, historians and researchers, along with artists, musicians, poets, community groups and activists from around the world. All our participants respond to the story of Douglass and other changemakers through historical, creative, academic, cultural and other lenses to describe the influence of history on contemporary topics and conversations.

The third #DouglassWeek will take place July 10-16, 2023 in Rochester, and you are cordially invited to join the festivities in person or online during the week.

Please visit our website and our social media channels for more information about the Globe Lane Initiative, our roots in Cork, Ireland and our another important projects like #DouglassWeek and the Douglass Dialogues series.

You can also find resources on Frederick Douglass's life and legacy there, sign up for and read more about the individual events of this year's #DouglassWeek and download all important information you need.
